Woolies Wheels & Walks | How to Start Fundraising:

Breakdown The Process to 5 Steps

- 1. What is your Fundraising Goal? Get started early and aim to overachieve. Breakdown the target into weekly goals.
- 2. Update your fundraising profile People receive more donations when they share their 'Why' Woolies Wheels & Walks is important to them. Add a photo too.
- 3. Make the first donation
- 4. Just Ask. Tell everyone what you're doing and 'Why'. You will be amazed how your story and why you're doing Woolies Wheels & Walks may resonate with your network.
- 5. Have a plan. Apart from 'just asking' what is your Plan B? Hold an event? A Raffle? A BBQ?

Woolies Wheels & Walks | Ways to Fundraise

- Just Ask – Tell, email, social media
- Put on an Event
- Sell merchandise, product or a service
- Raffle or Auction
- Self Funding – Give up coffee for a month!
- If it's your birthday ask for a donation instead of a gift!

Woolies Wheels & Walks | Bunnings BBQ

Raise $800 - $2000 in a day!

1. Contact your local Bunnings Warehouse
2. Send in Letter of Authority and Certificate of Currency
TDC will provide
3. Ask a minimum of 5 friends to help for a few hours
4. Buy supplies, sausages, bread, onions, sauce, drinks –
ask your local Woolies to help!
5. Get a Square Reader to take card payments, $60 from Officeworks, or borrow a friend's. Some Bunnings allow you to use their QR card payment system.
6. BRING a sense of humour and camaraderie and TAKE lots of fundraising dollars!

Hold a BBQ as a team and share the fundraising proceeds

Or

Go it alone and ask friends and family to help on the day

Woolies Wheels & Walks | Cash Raffle

Want to hold a raffle but don't have anything of value to raffle or auction? Run a Cash Raffle!

Have a think about your audience, how much do you think they are willing to pay (ticket cost), with what odds of winning (maximum number of tickets sold), for what cash prize (1st, 2nd, 3rd prize money)?

Encourage multiple /bundle deals if the ticket price and chance of winning is low but the cash prize is high. For example a $25 ticket chance of winning is 1/500 for $2,000 cash prize, suggest they buy 4 tickets! Play around with the numbers until you find a formula that is going to suit your potential buyers.

Ticket Cost	Max. tickets sold	Chance of winning	Total proceeds	1 st Prize	2 nd Prize	3 rd Prize	Fundraising achieved
$25	100	1/100	$2,500	$500	$250	$100	$1,650
$25	500	1/500	$12,500	$2,000	$1,000	$500	$9,000
$50	100	1/100	$5,000	$1,000	$500	$100	$3,400
$100	50	1/50	$5,000	$1,000	$500	$100	$3,400

*You must check the regulations regarding holding a raffle in your state.
Raffle tickets are not eligible for a tax deductible receipt.*

your thing?

Woolies Wheels & Walks | What are you good at?

- You've got an Inspiring story: Just Ask and share your story. Email, Social Media.
- Got a big network of friends or family: Events such as Barefoot Bowls, Movie Night, Comedy for A Cause, Cork & Canvas, Bike n Blend, wine tasting, dinner party
- Outgoing & Social: Events as above
- First time fundraiser: Just Ask, email, facebook, Instagram, LinkedIn. Update your fundraising page, make the first donation. Sponsorship to give something up for a month e.g. coffee/alcohol/sugar
- Creative: Sell something you've made, chutney, bake sale, cook lunches, sell handmade birthday cards. If you're a handy craftsman, sell your creations.
- Fundraising as a group: Bunnings BBQ or Cake Stall.

- Work in a big office: Sell Cadbury Chocolates, Krispy Kreme, sell entertainment guides, sell lunches, bake sale, car wash in the office car park
- Social Media addict: Just ask, share your story, sell unwanted 'stuff' on facebook marketplace
- Foodie: Hold a dinner party, wine tasting, afternoon tea. If you're an amazing cake maker – make & sell birthday cakes for your friends' children's birthday parties
- Detailed & Organised: Team up with a social person to put on an event, they do the spruiking, you do the organising. Return & Earn.

Woolies Wheels & Walks | Email is your most powerful tool

- If you don't ask you don't get!
- 60-80% of people on Tour de Cure get their fundraising through Just Asking!
- A clear and concise email to your entire address book explaining the challenge you're taking on and your personal 'why' you want to find a cure
- Include a link to your fundraising page – both in the body of the email and again at the end.
- Set up your email signature to have your profile link
- Turn your fundraising page link into a QR code by clicking on the icon on your page  Make up cards, save to your phone or print a sticker and stick to your bike or helmet!
- Remember to thank EVERYONE who makes a donation
- Statistics tell us that people need to be reminded seven times before they donate!

Woolies Wheels & Walks | How to use social media for fundraising

- Social media – Facebook, Instagram, Linked In, can all be used to help your fundraising
- Post regularly to make sure your supporters see your post. Include a link to your fundraising page
- Use social media to publicly thank your friends for supporting you – it encourages more of your friends to get on board!
- Put up picture of you training and any fundraising you do along the way so people can follow your journey
- Post during your event and after. Photos, Photos, Photos. People love to see you doing the event.
- Track your training on Strava and share your fundraising link

Woolies Wheels & Walks | Can I still run events?

YES! Just adapt!

Cork and Canvas painting sessions,
either at the studio
Or virtual workshop at home

When planning an event, check the latest Covid-19 guidelines. Check again on the days leading to your event as Covid-19 rules can change quickly

Change locations

You may have held a Trivia Night close to work on a weeknight. Choose a venue in the suburbs and on the weekend or run a Kahoot! Virtual trivia.

I feel awkward asking in these difficult times

You will be surprised by people's generosity towards charity in tough times. If they are unable to support you financially, your friends may support you in other ways which are equally as heartwarming and generous.

Woolies Wheels & Walks | Fundraising Guidelines - the fine print

Letters of Authority

When you raise funds for a charity, you may be required to produce a letter of authority to enable you to collect donations on the charity's behalf. Please contact fundraising@tourdecure.com.au for a personalised letter.

Certificate of Currency / Public Liability

When holding an event in a public area, it is vital to be covered for accidents. Tour de Cure can provide you with a Certificate of Currency to cover: Public & Products Liability: $20,000,000 any one event and Professional Indemnity: $1,000,000 any one claim. Please contact fundraising@tourdecure.com.au for a copy.

Tax Deductible Receipts for Donations

A donation over $2 is eligible for a Tax Deductible Receipt, however If a person or organisation is receiving goods or a service in return for their gift or donation, this is NOT eligible for a Tax Deductible Receipt as set out by the ATO. Therefore, raffle tickets, auction items, trivia nights, sausage sizzles and golf days etc will not receive a Tax Deductible Receipt.

Receiving Funds and Donations

Donations can be made directly to your fundraising page, the donor will automatically receive a Tax Deductible Receipt. If you are holding an event and need to take costs out, look at setting up an account with a ticketing website such as Trybookings or Humanitix who take a nominal fee and make ticketing for charity events easy. Proceeds from your events can be made directly onto your fundraising page or EFT to Tour de Cure bank account. Contact fundraising@tourdecure.com.au for bank details.

Use of TDC Logo

Please be thoughtful about the nature of your fundraising event and what our logo appears on. Ensure your events fit with our 'Be Fit, Be Healthy, Be Happy' cancer awareness brand and don't discriminate against groups of people or promote unhealthy lifestyle choices. Please send us your design to enable us to approve the use of our logo.

Naming your Event

Tour de Cure's name cannot be used as part of your event name; however, we would love you to say that 'proceeds will go to Tour de Cure', or 'proudly supporting Tour de Cure'.
